New York, NY 10111

Miami, FL – United World Leaders (the “Institution”) proudly announces the addition of Ramón Martínez de la Guardia, Ambassador to the United States (Ret.) of Panama, to its distinguished membership. Amb. Martínez de la Guardia is recognized for his strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. He brings a wealth of experience and will contribute to the leadership of the Institution. This important addition to the Institution's already glowing list of Members further empowers the Institution's capacity to amplify the efforts, triumphs, and resulting impact of its Members.

As the Minister of Commerce and Industries of Panama, Mr. Martínez met his counterparts and executives from several countries in different regions of the world, particularly Latin America. He created a Commercial Intelligence Office within the Ministry to provide resources for his exporters to uncover opportunities and benefits within treaties, free of charge. His term was marked by his creation of 7 new Free Trade Zones and the establishment of 51 new multinational companies in Panama. Also Ramón Martínez de la Guardia served as the Ambassador of the Republic of Panama to the United States of America. As a result of his leadership, Panama was selected to be one of the seven countries that the United States will partner with to build a more resilient, secure, and sustainable global semiconductor value chain under the CHIPS Act of 2022.

United World Leaders represents the next generation of a United-Nations-type institution — one focused on implementing, accelerating, and amplifying the initiatives and resulting impact of its Member organizations, ministries, and states, with the shared purpose of preventing wars and elevating the socioeconomic well-being of humanity across the world.

United World Leaders is also designed to serve as a premier platform for international treaties, diplomatic, business as well as other bilateral and multilateral engagements, enabling Members and nations to advance aligned priorities with credibility and support.

Today, United World Leaders stands as one of the world's most influential assemblies of current and former heads of state, ministers, senior government dignitaries, royalty, multinational business leaders, global family offices, investment funds, humanitarian institutions, academic partners, and true world changers. Through this global ecosystem, our Members gain access to extraordinary support, international exposure, strategic partnerships, capital, new markets, and direct engagement with institutions and governments across continents.
