Miami, FL – United World Leaders (the “Institution”) proudly announces the addition of Charles Rettig, Former Internal Revenue Service Commissioner, to its distinguished membership. Mr. Charles Rettig is recognized for his strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. He brings a wealth of experience and will contribute to the leadership of the Institution. This important addition to the Institution's already glowing list of Members further empowers the Institution's capacity to amplify the efforts, triumphs, and resulting impact of its Members.

As IRS Commissioner, Chuck presided over the nation's tax system, which collected more than $4.9 trillion in tax revenue in Financial Year 2022, representing about 96% of the total gross receipts of the United States. He managed an agency of about 83,000 employees and a budget of more than $14.1 billion. During his tenure, he focused on improving service to the nation's taxpayers, balancing appropriate enforcement of the nation's tax laws while respecting taxpayer rights, with a particular focus on traditionally underserved communities. In recognition of his leadership of the IRS, Chuck received the Alexander Hamilton Award from Treasury, the highest honor for individuals selected by the Secretary, whose performance and leadership demonstrate the highest standards of and dedication to public service benefiting our country

United World Leaders represents the next generation of a United-Nations-type institution — one focused on implementing, accelerating, and amplifying the initiatives and resulting impact of its Member organizations, ministries, and states, with the shared purpose of preventing wars and elevating the socioeconomic well-being of humanity across the world.

United World Leaders is also designed to serve as a premier platform for international treaties, diplomatic, business as well as other bilateral and multilateral engagements, enabling Members and nations to advance aligned priorities with credibility and support.

Today, United World Leaders stands as one of the world's most influential assemblies of current and former heads of state, ministers, senior government dignitaries, royalty, multinational business leaders, global family offices, investment funds, humanitarian institutions, academic partners, and true world changers. Through this global ecosystem, our Members gain access to extraordinary support, international exposure, strategic partnerships, capital, new markets, and direct engagement with institutions and governments across continents.
