Miami, FL – United World Leaders (the “Institution”) proudly announces the addition of retired Major General Dustin “Dusty” Shultz, former Director of Intelligence at U.S. Southern Command, to its distinguished membership.

Retired Major General Shultz is widely recognized for her strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. Her extensive experience and network of global relationships bring new opportunities to the Institution’s Members and strategic partners. This important addition further amplifies the Institution’s efforts, reach, and the resulting impact of its Members around the world.

As Former Director of Intelligence at U.S. Southern Command, “Dusty” oversaw international operations focused on countering malign state actor activities across Latin America. She played a pivotal role in integrating AI and machine learning, enhancing multinational collaborations, and creating a unified intelligence platform that bridged public and private sector data—streamlining decision-making for governments, corporations, and NGOs alike.

Earlier in her career while serving as the U.S. Army’s Director of Strategic Operations, “Dusty”, shaped the future of Army Cyberspace Operations, Electronic Warfare, and Information Operations, directly advising the Chief of Staff of the Army. As Commanding General of the 1st Mission Support Command in Puerto Rico, retired Major General Shultz led critical response efforts during Hurricanes Irma and Maria, coordinating large-scale humanitarian and logistical operations.

United World Leaders represents the next generation of a United-Nations-type institution — one focused on implementing, accelerating, and amplifying the initiatives and resulting impact of its Member organizations, ministries, and states, with the shared purpose of preventing wars and elevating the socioeconomic well-being of humanity across the world.

United World Leaders is also designed to serve as a premier platform for international treaties, diplomatic, business as well as other bilateral and multilateral engagements, enabling Members and nations to advance aligned priorities with credibility and support.

Today, United World Leaders stands as one of the world’s most influential assemblies of current and former heads of state, ministers, senior government dignitaries, royalty, multinational business leaders, global family offices, investment funds, humanitarian institutions, academic partners, and true world changers. Through this global ecosystem, our Members gain access to extraordinary support, international exposure, strategic partnerships, capital, new markets, and direct engagement with institutions and governments across continents.
