New York, NY 10111

Miami, FL – United World Leaders (the “Institution”) proudly announces the addition of Edward Mermelstein, Former New York City's Commissioner for International Affairs, to its distinguished membership. Mr. Edward Mermelstein is recognized for his strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. He brings a wealth of experience and will contribute to the leadership of the Institution. This important addition to the Institution's already glowing list of Members further empowers the Institution's capacity to amplify the efforts, triumphs, and resulting impact of its Members.

Edward Mermelstein is a former Commissioner of International Affairs for the City of New York under the administration of Mayor Eric Adams from 2022 to July 2025. In this role, he was responsible for foreign direct investment and international cooperation, and led initiatives that strengthened the city's economic resilience, contributed to the development of housing construction and the creation of new jobs, which established New York as a leader in the field of responsible management of artificial intelligence. Edward's experience in navigating international markets led him to be named one of New York City's 10 most influential figures in real estate.

United World Leaders represents the next generation of a United-Nations-type institution — one focused on implementing, accelerating, and amplifying the initiatives and resulting impact of its Member organizations, ministries, and states, with the shared purpose of preventing wars and elevating the socioeconomic well-being of humanity across the world.

United World Leaders is also designed to serve as a premier platform for international treaties, diplomatic, business as well as other bilateral and multilateral engagements, enabling Members and nations to advance aligned priorities with credibility and support.

Today, United World Leaders stands as one of the world's most influential assemblies of current and former heads of state, ministers, senior government dignitaries, royalty, multinational business leaders, global family offices, investment funds, humanitarian institutions, academic partners, and true world changers. Through this global ecosystem, our Members gain access to extraordinary support, international exposure, strategic partnerships, capital, new markets, and direct engagement with institutions and governments across continents.
