Miami, FL – United World Leaders (the “Institution”) proudly announces the addition of Hassan Diab, former Prime Minister of Lebanon, to its distinguished membership as Honorary Advisory Board member.

Prime Minister Hassan Diab is widely recognized for his strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. His extensive experience and network of global relationships bring new opportunities to the Institution's Members and strategic partners. This important addition further amplifies the Institution's efforts, reach, and the resulting impact of its Members around the world.

Prime Minister Hassan Diab became the first Prime Minister in the MENA region to form a cabinet with 30% female ministers. During his tenure as Minister of Education and Higher Education from 2011 to 2014, he implemented unprecedented educational reforms that elevated Lebanon's education rankings to 10th globally for quality of education and 4th for quality of math and science education according to the 2013 World Economic Forum report. Over his distinguished 33-year academic career, he published over 150 articles in scientific journals and conferences while serving as Professor of Computer Engineering at the American University of Beirut and as Founding President of Dhofar University in Oman. A passionate advocate for youth empowerment and educational reform, he received the Lebanese Order of Merit Grand Cordon Grade and was invited to the 2007 Biennial Festival of Thinkers in Abu Dhabi alongside 20 Nobel Prize Laureates as one of 90 world thinkers.

United World Leaders represents the next generation of a United-Nations-type institution — one focused on implementing, accelerating, and amplifying the initiatives and resulting impact of its Member organizations, ministries, and states, with the shared purpose of preventing wars and elevating the socioeconomic well-being of humanity across the world.

United World Leaders is also designed to serve as a premier platform for international treaties, diplomatic, business as well as other bilateral and multilateral engagements, enabling Members and nations to advance aligned priorities with credibility and support.

Today, United World Leaders stands as one of the world's most influential assemblies of current and former heads of state, ministers, senior government dignitaries, royalty, multinational business leaders, global family offices, investment funds, humanitarian institutions, academic partners, and true world changers. Through this global ecosystem, our Members gain access to extraordinary support, international exposure, strategic partnerships, capital, new markets, and direct engagement with institutions and governments across continents.
