Miami, FL – United World Leaders (the “Institution”) proudly announces the addition of Leela Aheer, Former Minister of Culture, Multiculturalism & Status of Women of Canada, to its distinguished membership. Mrs. Leela Aheer is recognized for her strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. She brings a wealth of experience and will contribute to the leadership of the Institution. This important addition to the Institution's already glowing list of Members further empowers the Institution's capacity to amplify the efforts, triumphs, and resulting impact of its Members.

Prior to entering politics, Aheer was a professional vocal coach and music teacher, who instructed singing in seven languages, owned and operated businesses as an entrepreneur, and was heavily involved in the arts, volunteerism and community service. Leela Aheer began her political career with a notable victory in 2015 by becoming a Member of the Legislative Assembly of Alberta for Chestermere Strathmore. A strong advocate for unity, she supported the merger of Alberta's conservative parties and was appointed deputy leader of the United Conservative Party, where she championed centrist and inclusive values. As Minister of Culture, Multiculturalism, and Status of Women, she led impactful initiatives such as Alberta's Clare's Law and the province's first recognition of Women's Entrepreneurship Day. She also was a Minister responsible for the Francophone Secretariat

United World Leaders represents the next generation of a United-Nations-type institution — one focused on implementing, accelerating, and amplifying the initiatives and resulting impact of its Member organizations, ministries, and states, with the shared purpose of preventing wars and elevating the socioeconomic well-being of humanity across the world.

United World Leaders is also designed to serve as a premier platform for international treaties, diplomatic, business as well as other bilateral and multilateral engagements, enabling Members and nations to advance aligned priorities with credibility and support.

Today, United World Leaders stands as one of the world's most influential assemblies of current and former heads of state, ministers, senior government dignitaries, royalty, multinational business leaders, global family offices, investment funds, humanitarian institutions, academic partners, and true world changers. Through this global ecosystem, our Members gain access to extraordinary support, international exposure, strategic partnerships, capital, new markets, and direct engagement with institutions and governments across continents.
