New York, NY – United World Leaders (the “Institution”) proudly announces the addition of Rindra Rabarinirinarison, former Minister of Economy and Finance of Madagascar, to its distinguished membership.

Mrs. Rindra Rabarinirinarison is widely recognized for her strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. Her extensive experience and network of global relationships bring new opportunities to the Institution’s Members and strategic partners. This important addition further amplifies the Institution’s efforts, reach, and the resulting impact of its Members around the world.

During her tenure as Minister of Economy and Finance of Madagascar, Mrs. Rindra Rabarinirinarison led major economic policy initiatives, including the presentation of the 2025 finance bill and securing a renewed staff level agreement with the IMF. Prior to her appointment as Minister, she oversaw the implementation and monitoring of the General State Policy, with responsibility for economic, fiscal, budgetary, and financial management. In her capacity as Secretary General of the Ministry, she coordinated the partnership framework with technical and financial partners and led international negotiations on behalf of the government. Since February 2020, she has served as an Alternate Governor of the World Bank and as a member of its Board of Directors, where she has reviewed, evaluated, and validated reports relating to Madagascar.

United World Leaders stands as one of the world’s largest and most influential assemblies of presidents, prime ministers of countries as well as other current and former senior government dignitaries, some of the world’s largest family offices, multinational business leaders, investment funds, humanitarian institutions, academic partners, and true world changers. Through this global ecosystem, our Members gain access to extraordinary support, international exposure, strategic partnerships, capital, new markets, and direct engagement with institutions and governments across continents.

United World Leaders represents the next generation of a global leadership institution — one focused on implementing, accelerating, and amplifying the initiatives and resulting impact of its Member organizations, ministries, and states, with the shared purpose of preventing wars and elevating the socioeconomic well-being of humanity across the world. Members are able to lead Councils of their focus areas as Chairs or Co-Chairs, integrate related initiatives into our online and in-person events, host their own engagements across the globe and much more.

United World Leaders also serves as a premier platform for international treaties, diplomatic, business as well as other bilateral and multilateral engagements, enabling Members and nations to advance aligned priorities with credibility, legitimacy and support.
