Miami, FL – United World Leaders (the “Institution”) proudly announces the addition of Ned Siegel, U.S. Ambassador (Ret.) to the Commonwealth of the Bahamas and President of the Siegel Group, to its distinguished membership. Ambassador Siegel is recognized for his strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. He brings a wealth of experience and will contribute to the leadership of the Institution.

Ambassador Ned L. Siegel's business career encompasses over 40 years of entrepreneurial experience as a developer, owner and manager of vast and diverse holdings in residential and commercial real estate, witnessing first-hand both the best and worst of economic times. Presently, he serves as President of The Siegel Group, a multi-disciplined international business management advisory firm specializing in real estate, energy, utilities, infrastructure, financial services, oil and gas and cyber and secure technology. Amb. Siegel has had the distinguished honor of serving three Presidential appointments: from 2003 – 2007 he was appointed to serve on the Board of Directors of the Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC); then from 2006 - 2007 he served as the Senior Advisor to the U.S. Mission and as the U.S. Representative to the 61st Session of the United Nations General Assembly in New York, where he served under Ambassador John R. Bolton; and from October 2007- January 2009, he served his third appointment as the U.S. Ambassador to the Commonwealth of the Bahamas.

United World Leaders represents the next generation of a United-Nations-type institution — one focused on implementing, accelerating, and amplifying the initiatives and resulting impact of its Member organizations, ministries, and states, with the shared purpose of preventing wars and elevating the socioeconomic well-being of humanity across the world.

United World Leaders is also designed to serve as a premier platform for international treaties, diplomatic, business as well as other bilateral and multilateral engagements, enabling Members and nations to advance aligned priorities with credibility and support.

Today, United World Leaders stands as one of the world's most influential assemblies of current and former heads of state, ministers, senior government dignitaries, royalty, multinational business leaders, global family offices, investment funds, humanitarian institutions, academic partners, and true world changers. Through this global ecosystem, our Members gain access to extraordinary support, international exposure, strategic partnerships, capital, new markets, and direct engagement with institutions and governments across continents.
