Miami, FL – United World Leaders (the “Institution”) proudly announces the addition of Anthony Carmona, former President of Trinidad and Tabago, to its distinguished membership as Honorary Advisory Board member.

President Carmona is widely recognized for his strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. His extensive experience and network of global relationships bring new opportunities to the Institution’s Members and strategic partners. This important addition further amplifies the Institution’s efforts, reach, and the resulting impact of its Members around the world.

President Anthony Carmona served as the fifth President of Trinidad and Tobago from 2013 to 2018, having previously distinguished himself as a Judge of the International Criminal Court. Prior to his presidency, he built an accomplished international legal career serving as Appeals Counsel at the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia in The Hague and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda in Arusha, before being appointed a High Court Judge at the Supreme Court of Trinidad and Tobago. Throughout President Carmona’s distinguished career in law, he rose from State Counsel in to Senior State Attorney, and served as Deputy Director of Public Prosecutions, demonstrating exceptional legal expertise and leadership. In recognition of his contributions to international peace and justice, he received the World Peace Culture Award on May 4, 2019, honoring his decades of service to the advancement of human rights and the rule of law.

United World Leaders represents the next generation of a United-Nations-type institution — one focused on implementing, accelerating, and amplifying the initiatives and resulting impact of its Member organizations, ministries, and states, with the shared purpose of preventing wars and elevating the socioeconomic well-being of humanity across the world.

United World Leaders is also designed to serve as a premier platform for international treaties, diplomatic, business as well as other bilateral and multilateral engagements, enabling Members and nations to advance aligned priorities with credibility and support.

Today, United World Leaders stands as one of the world’s most influential assemblies of current and former heads of state, ministers, senior government dignitaries, royalty, multinational business leaders, global family offices, investment funds, humanitarian institutions, academic partners, and true world changers. Through this global ecosystem, our Members gain access to extraordinary support, international exposure, strategic partnerships, capital, new markets, and direct engagement with institutions and governments across continents.
