Miami, FL –United World Leaders (the “Institution”) proudly announces the addition of Boris Tadić, Former President of Serbia, to its distinguished membership as an Honorary Board member. Mr. Tadić is recognized for his strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. He brings a wealth of experience and will contribute to the leadership of the Institution.

Boris Tadić served two terms as President of Serbia. His extensive political career includes key roles as Minister of Telecommunications of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia and Minister of Defence of Serbia and Montenegro, where he played a critical role in driving modernization and implementing significant reforms. As President, Tadić was instrumental in advancing Serbia's European Union integration, fostering regional stability, and championing human rights. He also led the Democratic Party, focusing on political and economic modernization. Tadić's legacy is marked by his strategic leadership in strengthening Serbia's position on the global stage while effectively navigating complex regional and international challenges.

United World Leaders represents the next generation of a United-Nations-type institution — one focused on implementing, accelerating, and amplifying the initiatives and resulting impact of its Member organizations, ministries, and states, with the shared purpose of preventing wars and elevating the socioeconomic well-being of humanity across the world.

United World Leaders is also designed to serve as a premier platform for international treaties, diplomatic, business as well as other bilateral and multilateral engagements, enabling Members and nations to advance aligned priorities with credibility and support.

Today, United World Leaders stands as one of the world's most influential assemblies of current and former heads of state, ministers, senior government dignitaries, royalty, multinational business leaders, global family offices, investment funds, humanitarian institutions, academic partners, and true world changers. Through this global ecosystem, our Members gain access to extraordinary support, international exposure, strategic partnerships, capital, new markets, and direct engagement with institutions and governments across continents.
