Miami, FL – United World Leaders (the “Institution”) proudly announces the addition of Joyce Banda, former President of Malawi, to its distinguished membership as an Honorary Board member.

President Joyce Banda is widely recognized for his strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. Her extensive experience and network of global relationships bring new opportunities to the Institution’s Members and strategic partners. This important addition further amplifies the Institution’s efforts, reach, and the resulting impact of its Members around the world.

President Joyce Banda, the country’s first female Head of State, is globally distinguished for her decisive economic and social reforms. During her presidency she devalued the Malawian kwacha to unlock international credit lines, restored relations with the IMF and World Bank, and secured over $500 million in foreign aid that revitalized the national economy. She led groundbreaking initiatives such as the Presidential Initiative on Maternal Health and Safe Motherhood, which helped reduce maternal mortality by over 30%, and expanded education and microfinance opportunities for women through the Joyce Banda Foundation—an organization that has supported more than 1.3 million people across Malawi.

United World Leaders represents the next generation of a United-Nations-type institution — one focused on implementing, accelerating, and amplifying the initiatives and resulting impact of its Member organizations, ministries, and states, with the shared purpose of preventing wars and elevating the socioeconomic well-being of humanity across the world.

United World Leaders is also designed to serve as a premier platform for international treaties, diplomatic, business as well as other bilateral and multilateral engagements, enabling Members and nations to advance aligned priorities with credibility and support.

Today, United World Leaders stands as one of the world’s most influential assemblies of current and former heads of state, ministers, senior government dignitaries, royalty, multinational business leaders, global family offices, investment funds, humanitarian institutions, academic partners, and true world changers. Through this global ecosystem, our Members gain access to extraordinary support, international exposure, strategic partnerships, capital, new markets, and direct engagement with institutions and governments across continents.
