Miami, FL – United World Leaders (the “Institution”) proudly announces the addition of Mohamed Waheed Hassan, former Prime Minister of Maldives, to its distinguished membership as an Honorary Board member.

President Mohamed Waheed Hassan is widely recognized for his strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. His extensive experience and network of global relationships bring new opportunities to the Institution’s Members and strategic partners. This important addition further amplifies the Institution’s efforts, reach, and the resulting impact of its Members around the world.

President Waheed served as the fifth President of the Maldives from 2012 to 2013, after having held the post of Vice President since 2008. During this period President Waheed played a stabilizing role in Maldivian politics — overseeing a peaceful transition of power amid political turmoil and advancing economic growth through stronger tourism. Prior to his political tenure, President Waheed built an extensive résumé at the United Nations, notably with UNICEF in multiple regional and country roles. In May 2025, he was appointed Special Envoy to the President, bringing his decades of experience to bear on bolstering the Maldives’ diplomatic and economic outreach.

United World Leaders represents the next generation of a United-Nations-type institution — one focused on implementing, accelerating, and amplifying the initiatives and resulting impact of its Member organizations, ministries, and states, with the shared purpose of preventing wars and elevating the socioeconomic well-being of humanity across the world.

United World Leaders is also designed to serve as a premier platform for international treaties, diplomatic, business as well as other bilateral and multilateral engagements, enabling Members and nations to advance aligned priorities with credibility and support.

Today, United World Leaders stands as one of the world’s most influential assemblies of current and former heads of state, ministers, senior government dignitaries, royalty, multinational business leaders, global family offices, investment funds, humanitarian institutions, academic partners, and true world changers. Through this global ecosystem, our Members gain access to extraordinary support, international exposure, strategic partnerships, capital, new markets, and direct engagement with institutions and governments across continents.
