Miami, FL – United World Leaders (the “Institution”) proudly announces the addition of Geir Haarde, former Prime Minister of Iceland, to its distinguished membership as an Honorary Board member.

Prime Minister Geir Haarde is widely recognized for his strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. His extensive experience and network of global relationships bring new opportunities to the Institution’s Members and strategic partners. This important addition further amplifies the Institution’s efforts, reach, and the resulting impact of its Members around the world.

Geir Haarde is the first minister in Icelandic political history to have held all three major ministerial positions, Prime Minister (2006-2009), Minister of Finance (1998-2005), and Minister of Foreign Affairs (2005-2006). He has served as the Ambassador of Iceland to The United States and several Latin American countries. From 2019 to 2021, he has been a chief representative at the World Bank Group. Geir Haarde is the only political leader in the world who has been taken to court for not doing enough to prevent the two thousand and eight financial crisis. He received recognition worldwide for his expertise in green renewable energy and sustainable energy projects and in 2008 was named the greenest political leader by Newsweek.

United World Leaders represents the next generation of a United-Nations-type institution — one focused on implementing, accelerating, and amplifying the initiatives and resulting impact of its Member organizations, ministries, and states, with the shared purpose of preventing wars and elevating the socioeconomic well-being of humanity across the world.

United World Leaders is also designed to serve as a premier platform for international treaties, diplomatic, business as well as other bilateral and multilateral engagements, enabling Members and nations to advance aligned priorities with credibility and support.

Today, United World Leaders stands as one of the world’s most influential assemblies of current and former heads of state, ministers, senior government dignitaries, royalty, multinational business leaders, global family offices, investment funds, humanitarian institutions, academic partners, and true world changers. Through this global ecosystem, our Members gain access to extraordinary support, international exposure, strategic partnerships, capital, new markets, and direct engagement with institutions and governments across continents.
