New York, NY 10111

Miami, FL – United World Leaders (the “Institution”) proudly announces the addition of Erastus Mwencha, former Vice Chairman of the African Union Commission, to its distinguished membership.

Mr. Erastus Mwencha is widely recognized for his strong commitment to democratic governance and economic development. His extensive experience and network of global relationships bring new opportunities to the Institution's Members and strategic partners. This important addition further amplifies the Institution's efforts, reach, and the resulting impact of its Members around the world.

Mr. Erastus Mwencha currently serves as Chair of the African Capacity Building Foundation Executive Board and previously served as Deputy Chairperson of the African Union Commission, where he oversaw administration and finance, supervised the development of two African Union Commission Strategic Plans, and participated in the development of Africa's long-term vision of Agenda 2063. Prior to his tenure at the African Union Commission, he served as Secretary General of the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa from 1998 to 2008, where he was instrumental in leading the organization to become the first regional body on the continent to achieve a Free Trade Area in 2000. During his leadership at the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa, Mwencha represented the region in negotiating the Economic Partnership Agreement with the European Union, the Doha Round of the World Trade Organization, and in promoting the African Growth and Opportunity Act for the benefit of the region's stakeholders.

United World Leaders represents the next generation of a United-Nations-type institution — one focused on implementing, accelerating, and amplifying the initiatives and resulting impact of its Member organizations, ministries, and states, with the shared purpose of preventing wars and elevating the socioeconomic well-being of humanity across the world.

United World Leaders is also designed to serve as a premier platform for international treaties, diplomatic, business as well as other bilateral and multilateral engagements, enabling Members and nations to advance aligned priorities with credibility and support.

Today, United World Leaders stands as one of the world's most influential assemblies of current and former heads of state, ministers, senior government dignitaries, royalty, multinational business leaders, global family offices, investment funds, humanitarian institutions, academic partners, and true world changers. Through this global ecosystem, our Members gain access to extraordinary support, international exposure, strategic partnerships, capital, new markets, and direct engagement with institutions and governments across continents.
